THE ORIGIN OF WIMBLEDON TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Wimbledon is home to the world renowned tennis championships. Founded in 1877 and officially known as 'The Championships, Wimbledon'. It is the oldest tennis tournament in the world and is generally regarded as the most prestigious of the four Grand Slam tournaments. Having been the subject of considerable updating in recent years, Wimbledon continues to lead the way in both much-loved tradition and world-leading advancements in modern technology. All games are famously played on grass courts at the All England Club, which is only a short walk from Wimbledon Village.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Steeped in tradition and history, Wimbledon also offers a wide variety of sports and leisure pursuits. The long-established Royal Wimbledon Golf Club was founded in 1882 and Wimbledon RFC (Rugby Football Club) in 1865, making them some of the oldest clubs of their kind in the country. The Common has over 1,100 acres of open land, ideal for walking and relaxing and a further wide range of sporting opportunities include the Wimbledon Park Water Sports and Outdoor Centre as well as a number of private health and fitness clubs including the well-known David Lloyd Centre, numerous gyms and alternative health studios.

Introducing Vision House

"Vision house is a sleek art Deco landmark, prominent yet understated. Constructed originally as a commercial building at around the same time as the train station in the 1930's, it is one of the grandest structures from the era to have stood on the retail parade.

The steel frame structure of the original commercial building boasts generous proportions, crafted with modern interior and specification throughout to a high standard. A fitting reinstatement to the former glory of this 20thcentury building. Vision house is the original premium quality residence of SW20"
